

Meeting the needs of the Hellenic Shortsea Shipowners

With more than 75 years of experience H.S.S.A. supports its members in achieving better economic, environmental and social performance.

Become a Member:

Advocacy

- lobbies policy makers
 - drives initiatives
 - impacts regulatory development
-

Information

H.S.S.A participates in International, European and national bodies such as the Hellenic Chamber of Shipping, European Sustainable Shipping Forum (ESSF), the European Shortsea Network (ESN) etc. and Technical and other Committees of Classification Societies and other relevant maritime bodies.

Members have access to reliable and continuous information on all issues concerning:

- national maritime policy
 - industry's issues discussed in the various European and International fora
-

*Access member-only web section
Circulars
Newsletters
Annual reports
Policy papers
Specialized reports about legislative initiatives
Simplified Guidelines of Regulations*

Expert advice access

-Support of our members' individual requests to the pertinent authorities in order to resolve issues of concern

Promotion & Networking

- Can identify membership by using H.S.S.A membership logo
 - Host events at our premises
 - Attend professional development events such as training seminars and meeting opportunities
 - Use H.S.S.A website to communicate your corporate CSR and other activities (social or green initiatives)
-

Other benefits

Take advantage of the special discount agreements with Classification Societies, Insurance companies and other bodies

Active involvement

- Nominate, elect and be elected to the BoD
 - Attend, participate and vote at General Meetings
 - Participation to H.S.S. A's Committees (Maritime Policy, Technical and Environmental, Port, Maritime Training)
-

Membership brings credibility to your business
Increase your visibility
Create networking opportunities